

AEP 8th Grade English

Summer Reading Assignment

REQUIRED READING FOR 8th GRADE ENGLISH

The assignment is based on The Outsiders by S. E. Hinton, a historic story of friendship and belonging in a setting not too unlike our own. You will need to purchase a copy of the novel on Amazon as you will be making annotations in the text as you read.

The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton

The Outsiders by S.E. Hinton is a coming-of-age novel that explores the clash between two rival gangs: the Greasers, a working-class group, and the Socs, the wealthy upper-class, in 1960s Tulsa, Oklahoma. The story is narrated by Ponyboy Curtis, a 14-year-old Greaser, who finds himself caught in the middle of gang violence and the struggle for belonging. The novel delves into themes of poverty, social class, violence, friendship, and the importance of loyalty.

ASSIGNMENT #1: CHARACTER JOURNALS

For each passage (see following pages), you will have to complete a character journal. The first character journal has been completed for you as a sample. Make sure that your name (first and last) is on each character journal entry. The character journals are due on the first day of school.

ASSIGNMENT #2: Annotations

Use the annotation guide provided to make 3-5 annotations per chapter in the text. Also, interact with text by adding questions and/or thoughts you have as you read. You will turn in your book with your annotations on the first day of school.

ASSIGNMENT #3: TEST/TIMED WRITE

During the first week of school, you will have a timed essay. All instruction for the first week will be based upon this book.

Your timed essay prompt is as follows:

Identify a theme conveyed in the novel The Outsiders and explain how the theme is developed over the course of the novel.

Keep in mind that the timed essay is an assignment that will be done in class; do not complete this essay in the summer. However, if you keep this big question in mind as you read, you will be more prepared for the beginning of English.

Instructions for the Character Journals

The purpose of the character journals is to support your understanding of the characters and the theme of the novel. You may choose to stop in your reading of the novel to complete each journal, or you may want to read the entire novel and go back to the assigned passages to complete each journal. The chosen passages are instances in which the main characters encounter some kind of conflict. The way that characters respond to the conflicts ultimately reveals what type of characters they are. The changing characters are going to contribute to themes of the novel—the meaning of the work as a whole. For each character journal, you will need to choose two pieces of textual evidence from the passage (the text evidence does not necessarily have to include dialogue) that you think best showcase the conflict the character is experiencing. Copy the textual evidence and citation in the left column, and in the right column, write thoughtful, well-written commentary about each character’s response to conflict. You will be graded based on the quality and insight of your answers.

For each journal entry, you will choose character traits and abstract nouns that correspond with the passages. Make sure that you look at the Character Trait resource and the Thematic Topics/Abstract Nouns resource before getting started, but you do not necessarily have to use words from those lists. A sample character journal is provided.

Sample Character Journal

Please note that the sample is not one of the assigned passages for character journals.

Passage: Sample Name of Passage:

Pages:

Activity One—Close Reading and Context [RL.8.2, RL.8.10]

In one or two complete sentences, write a brief summary that provides context for the scene. Include who is in the scene and what is happening.

Victor Frankenstein starts his formal education at Ingolstadt. After being discouraged by Professor Krempe, Frankenstein is encouraged by Professor Waldman to pursue a wide range of knowledge.

Activity Two—Conflict [RI.8.3]

Use the checklist below to indicate what type of conflict Frankenstein encounters. You may check more than one.

- two or more individuals (individual versus individual) an individual versus society an individual and his/her environment an individual versus himself or herself

Activity Three—Evidence and Commentary [RL.8.1, RL.8.2, RL.8.3]

In the left column, provide textual evidence or quotations from the novel that demonstrate Frankenstein's conflict. In the right hand column, write commentary to explain how he is changing throughout the novel.

Textual Evidence What type of conflict?	Commentary How does he deal with conflict? How is he changing?
"As a child I had not been content with the results promised by the modern professors of natural science... I had a contempt for the uses of modern natural philosophy" (38).	Victor Frankenstein has always had a thirst for knowledge that was unmet. His curiosity—even from a young age—left his appetite for learning unsatisfied.
"So much has been done, ... more, far more will I achieve; ... I will pioneer a new way, explore unknown powers, and unfold to the world the deepest mysteries of creation" (39).	After beginning his formal education, a spark is ignited in the young student. His powerful diction associated with creation demonstrates his overwhelming ambition.

Based on this passage, Frankenstein is curious [character trait] and/ but/ yet ambitious [character trait].

Write three abstract nouns/thematic topics that you think correspond with the passage.

PRIDE CURIOSITY AMBITION

Textual Evidence What type of conflict?	Commentary How does he deal with conflict? How is he changing?
"GREASERS ARE ALMOST LIKE HOODS; WE STEAL THINGS AND DRIVE OLD SOUPED UP CARS AND HOLD UP GAS STATIONS AND HAVE A GANG FIGHT ONCE IN A WHILE" (3).	PONYBOY SEES WHAT HE IS AND ACCEPTS HIS LIFE AND HIS FRIENDS AND FAMILY. HE ALSO SEES THE INJUSTICE IN THE WAY GREASERS ARE VIEWED AND TREATED BY OTHERS.
"NOT LIKE THE SOCS, WHO JUMP GREASERS AND WRECK HOUSES AND THROW BEER BLASTS FOR KICKS AND GET EDITORIALS IN THE PAPER FOR BEING A PUBLIC DISGRACE ONE DAY AND AN ASSET TO SOCIETY THE NEXT" (3).	PONYBOY DESCRIBES WHO AND WHAT THE SOCS ARE—KIDS WHO ARE RICHER THAN GREASERS. BECAUSE THEY ARE RICH, THEY GET AWAY WITH DOING TERRIBLE THINGS WITH NO CONSEQUENCES.

Based on this passage, Ponyboy is DEFENSIVE and/but/yet RESOLVED.
